Mr Wm Lloyd Garrison

121 Dear Sir

I was truly rejoiced to hear of your arrival in England.
Your name and all
pertaining to you is very dear to me. Though not dearer now than when I carried your letters on my person for the years I spent in Texas and the South. To your kindly recognition I owe it more than to anything else, that for adventure years, with broken health and shattered constitution, I have been enabled to earn my bread. To have been known to you

was in itself sufficient recommendation to Mr Thompson.

If you will kindly permit me to pay my respects to you and say when I may see you, as it will doubtless be the last time in this world you will confer a pleasure upon your obliged servant
John C Buckley

th I am staying with my friend Mr John Capper for a few days at 57 Florence Road New
Cross Deptford
